The Escape Room

An Escape Room is a physical adventure game where players work together to solve a series of puzzles and riddles using clues, hints, and strategy to complete the objectives at hand. Participants will be locked in a room, and they must find a way to "escape" within a set time limit. A Game Master will be present to look over the players.

Team Composition:

Each team must consist of at most 3 members. Participants will have to give the names of their team members and the name of their team beforehand.

Objective:

The goal is to solve a series of puzzles, riddles, and challenges to "escape" the room within a specified time limit. Team members must work together to uncover clues and solve the puzzles. Each puzzle will reveal a hint to unlocking the door or to the next puzzle.

Time Limit

The maximum time allowed for the escape room is 30 minutes. If a team fails to escape before the time limit then score will be given on the basis of the number of puzzles solved.

Score:

Each puzzle will have a score of 1 point. This score is not significant unless there is a tie.

Restrictions:

A team is not allowed to contact anyone outside the room while they are locked in the room. External communication devices (phones, smartwatches, etc.) are not allowed during the game.

The Escape Room

Winning Criterion:

Teams will be ranked based on the time taken to escape. In case of a tie due to time running out, the teams will be ranked on the basis of the scores of solved puzzles.

Note:

Handle all props and equipment with care.

Do not force or break any items in the room.

Emergency exits before time will be allowed in special cases only .

Cheating, sabotage, or any form of unfair play will result in immediate disqualification.

TURNCOAT

Turncoat is an event that would test the wit, knowledge, and oratory skills of the speaker

The participants would be given a topic, and they would have to speak both for and against the topic. The participant would be given 5 minutes to speak, and he/she would start the speech by speaking for the motion. In between these 5 minutes, the judge will buzz (multiple times), to which the participant will immediately have to switch and talk about the other side. After allotment of the topic, the participant would be given 1 minute of prep time.

Points will be allotted on how the participant balances out both sides. There will be an emphasis on how.

Smoothly the speakers change their stance and link the opposing side of the arguments. Points are also on how accurate the facts are and whether they do not deviate from the topic

This event allows students to explore debate topics and look at both sides of the coin in an exciting

WEAVE A STORY

This is the final round. This event invites the attendees to delve into a world where narratives unfold. The points would be given based on content, delivery, presentation and creativity. The participants would be given a prompt (image, starting/ending of the story, etc.) and they need to weave a story revolving around that prompt. The participants would be given 2 minutes to prepare their story, and after that, they would be given a time limit of 5 minutes to present their story. This event allows participants to dive into their imaginative world and weave out an extraordinary story.

Chrono-Shift

Event Overview

What if your business idea had to survive the test of time—across centuries, civilizations, and even into the future? ChronoShift challenges you to design a startup that evolves seamlessly through the Past, Present, and Future, adapting to the unique constraints and opportunities of each era.

This event will test your creativity, adaptability, and strategic thinking as you navigate the complexities of each time period. Are you ready to rewrite history and shape the future?

Event Structure

ChronoShift will be conducted entirely online and will consist of two rounds:

Round 1: The Present Era - Laying the Foundation

Participants will propose a startup idea set in the present day (2026). Your idea must address a real-world problem and showcase its potential for scalability and innovation.

Submission Requirements:

1. Format: PDF or PPT.
2. Max Slides: 5 slides (excluding title and thank-you slides).
3. Must Include:
 - Problem Statement: What issue does your startup solve?
 - Solution: How does your idea solve it innovatively?
 - Business Model: Revenue generation and market potential.
 - Scalability Vision: How the startup can grow in the future.

Deadline: Submissions must be uploaded by 4th February

Evaluation: Judges will shortlist teams based on originality, feasibility, and scalability.

Chrono-Shift

Round 2: The Time-Warped Challenge (Finals)

Date: 8 February 2026

The finalists will adapt their startup to fit three distinct time periods:

1. The Past: A historically significant era, such as the Industrial Revolution or Ancient Civilization.
2. The Present (2026): Your original startup pitch.
3. The Future: A speculative, technology-driven world.

Final Deliverables:

- A detailed 10-slide presentation showcasing:
 - a. How the startup evolves across all three eras.
 - b. Adjustments made for historical and futuristic constraints (e.g., available technology, societal norms, economic conditions).

Constraints/Challenges for the Past & Future Eras:

- Teams will receive predefined constraints or scenarios for the additional eras, such as:
 - a. Past: Limited technology, societal resistance, or lack of infrastructure.
 - b. Future: Over-reliance on AI, resource scarcity, or extreme climate changes.
- These challenges will be the same for all teams and will be communicated before the finals, allowing participants to prepare thoroughly.

Note: - The core idea of the startup should remain same in round 1 and round 2. Minor adjustments are allowed.

Judging Criteria

1. Creativity & Innovation: Uniqueness of the startup and its evolution across eras.
2. Adaptability: How effectively the startup transforms to suit each time period.
3. Feasibility: Practicality of implementation within the constraints of each era.

Chrono-Shift

4. Presentation Clarity: How effectively the team communicates their ideas.

General Guidelines

1. Team Size: 1-4 participants per team.
2. Eligibility: Open to all college students.
3. Submission Format: Standard PDF or PPT. Ensure all content is original.
4. Communication: All updates will be shared via email or WhatsApp.

Timeline

1. Registration Deadline: 31 January 2026
2. Round 1 Submission Deadline: 4 February 2026
3. Final Round: 8 February 2026

Prize Money

Total Prize Pool: 10,000

Rules & Disclaimers

1. Judges' decisions will be final.
2. Organizers reserve the right to modify rules if necessary and will communicate changes promptly.
3. Teams failing to meet deadlines will be disqualified.

Why This Works:

1. Consistency in Constraints: Using predefined constraints ensures fairness while making it easier for organizers.
2. Focus on Preparation: All requirements for the finals are communicated well in advance, avoiding on-the-spot surprises.
3. Flexibility: Simplified rules allow participants to focus on creativity without overcomplicating the process.

Mixology

Description:

Participants will compete in a mocktail-making challenge where they must prepare three distinct non-alcoholic drinks. The core of the competition involves adhering to a predetermined color palette of four colors and a specific theme. Both the color palette and the theme will be allotted to each team before the event so that every team can prepare accordingly .

Event Structure:

Type: Group Event

Participants per Team: 2

Duration: 1 hour (60 minutes)

Rules and Process Flow:

Planning, Conceptualization & Pantry Browsing (First 15 Minutes)

1. Theme and Color Selection: Teams will be randomly assigned a theme and a color palette before the event, allowing them to plan and prepare their mocktails accordingly.
2. Ingredient List: A common ingredient list of basic, raw, and unprocessed household ingredients will be provided before the event.
3. Ingredient Familiarization and Idea submission: Participants will be given 15 minutes to browse through the ingredients and planning. Team members must conceptualize and submit a final plan for their three mocktails before the 15-minute mark. The final plan should include mocktail's name , ingredients used and a brief description.
4. Start Signal: A whistle will be blown after 15 minutes, signaling the start of the preparation phase.

Preparation & Presentation (45 Minutes)

5. Preparation: Each team must prepare and present three distinct mocktails in the remaining 45 minutes.

Penalties & Disqualification

6. Time Limit: Exceeding the time limit will result in a deduction of 1 mark per 5 seconds.

Mixology

7. Workstation Integrity: Once the allotted time is over, team members must remain at their designated workstations and are strictly prohibited from bringing items to or taking items from their stations.
8. Personal Ingredients: Use of any personal, non-provided ingredient will result in immediate disqualification.
9. Deviation from Plan: Significant deviation between the conceptualized drinks (submitted plan) and the presented drinks will lead to disqualification.

Furthermore, any damage to equipment or utensils provided by the organizers will lead to a monetary penalty and immediate disqualification.

Proto UI

Problem Statement:

In a magical realm where fairies live across vast, floating islands, connection is not as effortless as it seems. Physical distance, varying wing types, magical abilities, and vastly different lifespans make forming meaningful relationships complex. Traditional dating platforms fail to account for these unique challenges, often reducing compatibility to surface-level traits.

As a result, fairies struggle to find partners who truly align with their magical essence, lifestyle, and long-term existence.

Your task is to design “Winged”, a dating app crafted specifically for fairies, one that respects their world, culture, and magic. The platform should enable fairies to discover, connect, and bond with others across islands while ensuring trust, safety, and emotional compatibility in a magical ecosystem.

Deliverables:

- Branding & Visual Elements:
 - App logo
 - Color palette
 - Iconography and UI elements
 - Overall visual language
- UI Screens:
 - Onboarding / Profile creation
 - Match discovery
 - Compatibility or magic-alignment view
 - Chat / interaction screen
 - Profile details or connection confirmation

Interactive Prototype:

- Create a clickable interactive prototype using tools such as Figma, Adobe XD, etc demonstrating Primary user flow, Key interactions, and, Transitions between screens.

Proto UI

Rules:

- Originality: All designs must be original and use of Gen-AI or any AI-based design tools is strictly prohibited.
- Clarity: Despite the fantasy setting, interfaces must remain intuitive and easy to understand and the core dating flow should be clear without explanation.
- Platform Freedom: Participants may design for mobile or web, or a hybrid experience.
- Registration Deadline: 31st Jan 2026
- Submission Deadline: 4th Feb 2026

Marking Criteria:

Creativity & Conceptual Thinking (30%)

- Original interpretation of the fairy-world dating concept.
- Imaginative use of fantasy elements.
- Thoughtful translation of lore into UI/UX.

User Experience (25%)

- Ease of navigation and clarity of information.
- Clear and logical user flow.
- Accessibility considerations (color contrast, font sizes, etc.).
- Consideration of edge cases (distance, compatibility, trust)

Visual Design (20%)

- Aesthetic appeal and alignment with consistency.
- Effective use of color, typography, and imagery.
- Alignment between visuals and the magical theme

Functionality (15%)

- Smoothness of interactions in the prototype (e.g., transitions, buttons, forms).
- Clear representation of intended behavior

Content Strategy & Structure (10%)

- Clear, engaging content that drives user actions (CTAs, storytelling).
- How well content supports user decisions
